You are cordially invited to attend the 2005 Eighth Circuit Judicial Conference. Please see the back of this page for more information.

The 2005 Eighth Circuit Judicial Conference will be held at the BRO^ADMOOR, Colorado Springs, Colorado, October 18-21, 2005. All members of the bar are cordially invited and encouraged to register and attend.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE!

Among those committed to appearing at the General Sessions on Thursday, October 20, 2005 and Friday, October 21, 2005 are:

- Associate Justice Clarence Thomas of the United States Supreme Court;
- Ted Olson, a former Solicitor General of the United States;
- Linda Greenhouse, who covers the legal beat for the New York Times and whose book about the late Justice Harry Blackmun was published in May of this year;
- Eugene Fidell, an expert on military law whose topic will be "Guantanamo Bay and All That;"
- All three judges who currently serve on, and the general counsel of, the United States Sentencing Commission who will discuss the commission's future and the future of sentencing in light of the Supreme Court's Decision in Booker;
- A panel including Professor John Yoo of Berkeley and other leading scholars, who will discuss the Supreme Court's recent decisions;
- A panel on "E-Discovery"; and
- A presentation on "Alternative Dispute Resolution".

The full program is still forming; invitations to participate in the conference have gone out to a number of other distinguished speakers.

ABOUT THE BRO^ADMOOR!

Born in 1891 as a gambling casino and transformed into a "grand resort" in 1918, the "Five-Star, Five-Diamond" Broadmoor continues to shine brightly as one of the world's premier resorts.

Amenities - The Broadmoor's award winning Spa offers fitness, skin and body treatments with five-star hospitality using products developed from the flora and fauna from the surrounding mountains.

The three championship golf courses at the Broadmoor were designed by master golf course architects Donald Ross, Robert Trent Jones and Ed Seay of the Arnold Palmer Organization.

Dining - The Broadmoor offers 11 world famous restaurants to choose from including the award winning Charles Court.
